

THE CHRISLER FITNESS FUNDRAISER CHALLENGE

is a fundraising event benefiting the Jeff Chrisler family. Jeff has been diagnosed with prostate cancer and any money raised will be donated to help with their mounting medical bills. The love of fitness training and the challenge the Chrisler family is undergoing at this time seems to lend itself to this challenging, fun and something for everyone fundraising event.

AUCTION

"Our family is so appreciative to everyone who is interested in taking part in some way in the Chrisler Fitness Challenge. Sometimes life circumstances force you to accept help from your friends and community and we hope to be able to pay it forward to someone else in need in the future. You touch our hearts with your generosity and we thank you."
